

Sparkenthusiasm Newsletter Back-To-School Edition

The month of August is filled with a flurry of preparations for the upcoming school year. We have been busy posting new ideas and videos on our website to help both new teachers and veterans come up with some new zazy activities to use with their students this year. Many of these ideas are interactive games, video activities, community events, AP activities, and student projects. Visit this link to see our Show and Tell project examples and a fun flash mob!

We have complete vocabulary units with presentations for every theme including family, clothing, body parts and health, reflexive verbs, all holidays, transportation, foods, drinks, travel, prepositions, animals, classroom materials, colors, furniture, house, professions, sport and nature. We also have added many videos that can be used to reinforce these vocabulary themes. http://www.sparkenthusiasm.com/vocabulary_resources.html

Check out some new videos and other items that we just pinned on our Pinterest page. <http://pinterest.com/sparkenthusiasm/>

We have added quite a few new items such as videos, example student videos & projects, and teacher instructions to many of the pages on our website. Here is the link for the grammar section with the present tense. There are songs, videos and more to teach the present tense.
