

Sparkenthusiasm Newsletter Back to School 2014 Edition

Happy Back to School to all! Here are some ideas and resources you may like as you begin to think about heading back to school in a few weeks. We have created some new movie packets! Take a look!

 Una Vida Mejor – A poignant story about a father who gets deported from the US. This movie teaches so much about immigration and family relationships as well as other cultural elements.

 Atletico San Pancho – A sweet, funny movie for all levels of students that teaches about how to rise above challenges. This movie is so inspiring and highlights soccer and Mexico beautifully.

 Frozen (Una Aventura Congelada) – An adorable movie that we plan to show in November when it first starts to get chilly. Students will LOVE the songs and this movie is so easy to understand in Spanish. We plan to tie this movie into our seasons and weather unit in lower level classes and our environment unit in Spanish 3 and AP.

 Los Colores de la Montaña – The scenery in this movie is beautiful and this movie goes along well with our unit on South America. We plan to teach about landmines, drug trafficking, violence, and education issues in Colombia when we show this movie.

 Motorcycle Diaries (Diarios de Motocicleta) – A perfect way to introduce learning more about the Cuban Revolution, World Problems (Desafíos Mundiales) – one of the AP themes) and Notable Figures in Latin America (che Guevara).
