During the summer, we discovered the amazing documentary Which Way Home. This Academy Award-nominated documentary Which Way Home shows the reality of what life is like for the poor, abandoned children who leave their home countries of El Salvador, Honduras, and Mexico in search of opportunities and their families in America. This film and movie guide provide interesting and inspiring learning opportunities to understand social justice, discrimination, gang violence, poverty, immigration, and loyalty. It is a great movie to teach the reasons behind immigration.
